First system of musical notation. It consists of a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#). The vocal line begins with a long note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and a more complex treble line with chords and moving lines. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present at the beginning of the piano part.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the vocal and piano parts from the first system. The vocal line continues with eighth notes and a final quarter note. The piano accompaniment maintains its rhythmic pattern.

Third system of musical notation. The key signature changes to one sharp (F#). The piano part becomes more complex with dense chordal textures and arpeggiated figures. The vocal line continues with quarter notes and eighth notes. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present.

Fourth system of musical notation. The piano part continues with dense textures. The vocal line concludes with a final note. A double bar line is present at the end of the system.
