This section begins at measure 22 with the tempo marking Andante. The first staff is marked delicato and features a complex, multi-measure rest for the first half of the staff. The second and third staves continue the melodic line with various phrasings and ornaments. The section concludes with a piano (p) dynamic marking.

This page of musical notation consists of ten staves. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The notation is highly complex, featuring numerous slurs, ties, and multi-measure rests. The music is written in a style that suggests a highly technical or virtuosic piece. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present on the eighth staff. The notation includes various note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The overall appearance is that of a page from a musical score, possibly for a solo instrument or a specific voice part.

This page of musical notation consists of ten staves of music. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is characterized by long, sweeping melodic lines, often spanning multiple measures and phrases. The notation includes a variety of rhythmic values, such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Slurs and ties are used extensively to connect notes across measures, creating a sense of continuous flow. The overall style is reminiscent of the piano music of composers like Chopin or Liszt. The page is numbered '5' at the bottom center.

This image shows a page of musical notation consisting of ten staves. The notation is written in a single system on a grand staff (treble clef). The music is characterized by frequent use of slurs and ties, often spanning across multiple measures. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some quarter notes. There are several dynamic markings, including 'p' (piano) at the beginning of the first, fifth, and tenth staves. The key signature is not explicitly shown but appears to have one flat (B-flat) based on the notes used. The overall style is that of a classical or romantic-era instrumental piece, possibly for a flute or violin.

This page of musical notation consists of 12 staves of music. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The time signature is 3/4. The music is characterized by long, sweeping melodic lines with many slurs and ties, creating a sense of continuous flow. The notes are densely packed, and the overall style is reminiscent of late 19th or early 20th-century Romantic music. A dynamic marking 'p' (piano) is visible on the fifth staff.
