The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melodic line with a long slur over the first five measures. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a bass line with chords. The first measure has a bass note labeled 'B'. The second, third, and fourth measures have chords labeled 'M'. The fifth measure has a chord labeled '7'. There are also two circled notes in the bass line in the third and fourth measures.

The second system of music also consists of two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with a slur over the first two measures of the first ending. The lower staff has a bass line with chords. The first measure of the first ending has a chord labeled '7'. The second and third measures of the first ending have chords labeled 'M'. The first ending concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots. The second ending starts in the next measure with a chord labeled 'M' and continues with another 'M' chord in the following measure. The system ends with a final chord labeled 'M' in the bass line.
